

livethrive

Emma Dufresne

Program Manager

emma@livethrive.org

Est. 2010

Live Thrive History & Accomplishments

2010

Hosted City of Atlanta's first HHW event

Result

Diversion of 75,000 pounds of materials

2010-2014

HHW Events hosted in/around Atlanta

Result

9 events and diversion of 750,000 pounds of materials

2015

Opened CHaRM-the first of its kind in metro Atlanta

Result

5,000 visitors and diversion of 125,000 pounds of materials

2015-2024

Education/Corporate Programs continued to expand

Result

Hosted 250+ schools and 400+ corporate lunch and learns

2024

Opened second CHaRM in DeKalb County

Result

Providing service to more residents and businesses. Projected to recycle 9.5 million pounds and serve 150,000+ visitors.

livethrive

Programs & Events

Center(s) for Hard to Recycle Materials

Community Events

Facility Tours

Annual Kids Day

Zero Waste Patrol

Consulting

Corporate Challenge

STE(A)M Grants

Importance of Live Thrive's Development of Strategic Partnerships

Corporate Partners

Provide funding and support through board memberships and industry knowledge

Municipal and Community Partners

Share educational information and assist with distributing information to the public

Nonprofit Partners

Redistribute materials collected at CHaRM into the local community

Processing Partners

Provide reliable and transparent recycling and reengineering of materials collected at CHaRM

"The 3 C's of Life:
Choices, Chances, Changes.
You must make the choice, to take a chance,
if you want anything in life to change."

-Zig Ziglar

Thank You!
www.livethrive.org

